Department Functions:

To provide citizens' assistance, Notary Public applications, and support for Delegation members

The Georgetown County Legislative Delegation Office serves as a liaison between the public, governmental agencies and the four (4) elected state legislators (two State senators and two representatives) who represent Georgetown County. The office processes all Notary Public applications filed by Georgetown County residents and provides information about Notary commissions to residents of other counties. Though state-mandated, the county funds the Delegation Office.

This Office:

- Serve as liaison between citizens, agencies and the Legislative Delegation members
- Process all Notary Public applications for Georgetown County residents
- Assists the public with information about other government agencies
- Coordinates administrative functions and meetings of the Legislative Delegation
- Provides public information on the status of South Carolina Legislation, via the Internet
